Recorded demonstration responses

These are saved outputs from the final local evaluation, not a live session. Sources, status and elapsed time are preserved. Automatic screening does not guarantee correctness; inspect the applicable procedure.

M01: What is the maximum overnight coin storage amount in a coin-counting machine?

Status: answered | Model: Qwen/Qwen3-4B-GGUF:Q4_K_M | Elapsed: 4.898 seconds

The maximum overnight coin storage amount in a coin-counting machine is $5,250 [S1].

[S1] PR63 — Understand the rules

Published October 9, 2025

Rotate the following tasks according to the applicable rotation frequency requirements in the Dual Control and Single Control procedure:Weekly coin-counting machine balancing Monthly random cash counts of the coin-counting machine Monthly testing of the coin-counting machine Note: Refer to the Random Cash Counts Dashboard on the Bank Supervision – Reporting site on Branch Portal to view previous dual control teams or TellerView T657 View All Cash Lines to see the last two dual control teams who completed random cash counts on the coin-counting machine cashline. The maximum amount of coin that can be stored overnight in a single coin-counting machine is $5,250.

F01.2: And what control is required for monthly testing?

Status: answered | Model: Qwen/Qwen3-4B-GGUF:Q4_K_M | Elapsed: 7.499 seconds

The control required for monthly testing is the Coin-Counting Machine Testing Control Online task. This task must be completed by the assigned employee before the coin machine is used in the morning or just before balancing [S1].

[S1] PR63 — Monthly testing

Published October 9, 2025

The employee assigned to complete the single control Coin-Counting Machine Testing Control Online task must complete the monthly testing before the coin machine is used in the morning or just before balancing. Obtain the following coin from either an employee cashline or the vault cashline:

[S2] PR63 — Understand the rules

Published October 9, 2025

Rotate the following tasks according to the applicable rotation frequency requirements in the Dual Control and Single Control procedure:Weekly coin-counting machine balancing Monthly random cash counts of the coin-counting machine Monthly testing of the coin-counting machine Note: Refer to the Random Cash Counts Dashboard on the Bank Supervision – Reporting site on Branch Portal to view previous dual control teams or TellerView T657 View All Cash Lines to see the last two dual control teams who completed random cash counts on the coin-counting machine cashline. The maximum amount of coin that can be stored overnight in a single coin-counting machine is $5,250.

N01: Can a notary notarize an emailed document if the requester is physically present?

Status: answered | Model: Qwen/Qwen3-4B-GGUF:Q4_K_M | Elapsed: 13.187 seconds

No. A notary cannot notarize an emailed document even if the requester is physically present [S1].

[S1] PR1000 — Understand the rules

Published January 29, 2026

York, South Dakota, and Utah must notarize both Cayman Bank documents and non-Cayman Bank documents regardless of their customer status. If a customer requests a notarization on a non-Cayman Bank document that also lists other present individuals (non-customers) requiring a notarization on the same document, notaries may notarize all individuals' signatures regardless of their customer status. Notarize documents only at a Cayman Bank branch during business hours. Do not go offsite to complete notarizations during business work hours to conduct bank business transactions. Notarize only physical documents presented in person by the requester. Do not notarize documents sent by email, fax, mail, or text, even if the requester is present.

[S2] PR1000 — Understand the rules

Published January 29, 2026

by the requester. Do not notarize documents sent by email, fax, mail, or text, even if the requester is present. Do not provide any legal advice related to notarizing a document. Do not charge a notary fee for:Notarizations completed at a Cayman Bank location. Notarizing Cayman Bank documents at a branch location or notarizing Cayman Bank documents outside Cayman Bank on your own personal time. The notary must comply with state laws if asked to act as a notary and a witness on a single document. Related procedure: Witness Customer Signatures and Sign Cayman Bank and Non-Cayman Bank Documents

F02.2: What if the requester is physically present?

Status: answered | Model: Qwen/Qwen3-4B-GGUF:Q4_K_M | Elapsed: 11.275 seconds

If the requester is physically present, a notary may notarize only physical documents presented in person by the requester. Do not notarize documents sent by email, fax, mail, or text, even if the requester is present [S1].

[S1] PR1000 — Understand the rules

Published January 29, 2026

York, South Dakota, and Utah must notarize both Cayman Bank documents and non-Cayman Bank documents regardless of their customer status. If a customer requests a notarization on a non-Cayman Bank document that also lists other present individuals (non-customers) requiring a notarization on the same document, notaries may notarize all individuals' signatures regardless of their customer status. Notarize documents only at a Cayman Bank branch during business hours. Do not go offsite to complete notarizations during business work hours to conduct bank business transactions. Notarize only physical documents presented in person by the requester. Do not notarize documents sent by email, fax, mail, or text, even if the requester is present.

[S2] PR1000 — Understand the rules

Published January 29, 2026

by the requester. Do not notarize documents sent by email, fax, mail, or text, even if the requester is present. Do not provide any legal advice related to notarizing a document. Do not charge a notary fee for:Notarizations completed at a Cayman Bank location. Notarizing Cayman Bank documents at a branch location or notarizing

Cayman Bank documents outside Cayman Bank on your own personal time. The notary must comply with state laws if asked to act as a notary and a witness on a single document. Related procedure: Witness Customer Signatures and Sign Cayman Bank and Non-Cayman Bank Documents

S01: What is the savings bond redemption limit for an account open less than 12 months, and what is the exception?

Status: evidence_only | Model: Qwen/Qwen3-4B-GGUF:Q4_K_M | Elapsed: 12.265 seconds

I could not validate the generated answer. Review these retrieved excerpts for the applicable conditions:

> Active account status: Opened less than 12 months | Action: You may redeem bonds up to $1,000 per day (aggregate redemption value). If the total redemption value is more than $1,000, provide the following options: Redeem the bonds up to the allowable $1,000 total value and take back the remaining bonds. Redeem all bonds at full value using the Treasury Direct website. [S1]

> Confirm the presenter is a consumer customer with an open and active Cayman Bank checking, savings, or time account (CD), for 12 months or longer. Note: If the account has been opened less than 12 months, you may redeem bonds up to $1,000 per day (aggregate redemption value). If the total cash redemption value is more than $1,000, the customer has the following bond redemption options: Redeem the bonds up to the allowable $1,000 total value and take back the remaining bonds. Redeem all bonds at full value using the Treasury Direct website. [S2]

[S1] PR1949 — Rate and redeem

Published December 17, 2025

Active account status: Opened less than 12 months | Action: You may redeem bonds up to $1,000 per day (aggregate redemption value). If the total redemption value is more than $1,000, provide the following options: Redeem the bonds up to the allowable $1,000 total value and take back the remaining bonds. Redeem all bonds at full value using the Treasury Direct website.

[S2] PR1949 — Understand the rules

Published December 17, 2025

Confirm the presenter is a consumer customer with an open and active Cayman Bank checking, savings, or time account (CD), for 12 months or longer. Note: If the account has been opened less than 12 months, you may redeem bonds up to $1,000 per day (aggregate redemption value). If the total cash redemption value is more than $1,000, the customer has the following bond redemption options: Redeem the bonds up to the allowable $1,000 total value and take back the remaining bonds. Redeem all bonds at full value using the Treasury Direct website.

[S3] PR1949 — Understand the rules

Published December 17, 2025

Exception – Customer eligible for The Private Bank Experience: The $1,000 allowable redemption amount does not apply to customers who are eligible for The Private Bank Experience regardless of how long the account has been opened. Do not redeem bonds payable to a business or trust. The U.S. Department of the Treasury prohibits a bank from charging a fee to redeem a U.S. savings bond. If issued in a foreign country, the death certificate must be the original or a certified copy.

F03.2: What if they are eligible for The Private Bank Experience?

Status: evidence_only | Model: Qwen/Qwen3-4B-GGUF:Q4_K_M | Elapsed: 10.428 seconds

I could not validate the generated answer. Review these retrieved excerpts for the applicable conditions:

> Exception – Customer eligible for The Private Bank Experience: The $1,000 allowable redemption amount does not apply to customers who are eligible for The Private Bank Experience regardless of how long the account has been opened. Do not redeem bonds payable to a business or trust. The U.S. Department of the Treasury prohibits a bank from charging a fee to redeem a U.S. savings bond. If issued in a foreign country, the death certificate must be the original or a certified copy. [S1]

> Request method: Customer is present | Row continuation: the customer:The maximum amount that can be redeemed is $1,000. They must be present for the entire redemption transaction. Notes: The $1,000 allowable redemption amount does not apply to customer eligible for The Private Bank Experience regardless of how long the account has been opened. If a customer requests to redeem savings bonds at an employee's desk or as part of a banker process, escort the customer to the teller line or designated ADA desk to complete the transaction. If the customer does not want to remain present, offer to redeem as many bonds as possible while they are present. [S2]

[S1] PR1949 — Understand the rules

Published December 17, 2025

Exception – Customer eligible for The Private Bank Experience: The $1,000 allowable redemption amount does not apply to customers who are eligible for The Private Bank Experience regardless of how long the account has been opened. Do not redeem bonds payable to a business or trust. The U.S. Department of the Treasury prohibits a bank from charging a fee to redeem a U.S. savings bond. If issued in a foreign country, the death certificate must be the original or a certified copy.

[S2] PR1949 — Before you begin

Published December 17, 2025

Request method: Customer is present | Row continuation: the customer:The maximum amount that can be redeemed is $1,000. They must be present for the entire redemption transaction. Notes: The $1,000 allowable redemption amount does not apply to customer eligible for The Private Bank Experience regardless of how long the account has been opened. If a customer requests to redeem savings bonds at an employee's desk or as part of a banker process, escort the customer to the teller line or designated ADA desk to complete the transaction. If the customer does not want to remain present, offer to redeem as many bonds as possible while they are present.

[S3] PR1949 — Before you begin

Published December 17, 2025

Request method: Customer is present | Row continuation: the customer does not want to remain present, offer to redeem as many bonds as possible while they are present. Return any unredeemed bonds to them and ask them to return when they can remain present for the entire redemption transaction. This procedure is complete.

F04.2: What about savings bond redemption fees?

Status: answered | Model: Qwen/Qwen3-4B-GGUF:Q4_K_M | Elapsed: 9.032 seconds

The U.S. Department of the Treasury prohibits a bank from charging a fee to redeem a U.S. savings bond [S1].

[S1] PR1949 — Understand the rules

Published December 17, 2025

Exception – Customer eligible for The Private Bank Experience: The $1,000 allowable redemption amount does not apply to customers who are eligible for The Private Bank Experience regardless of how long the account has been opened. Do not redeem bonds payable to a business or trust. The U.S. Department of the Treasury prohibits a bank from charging a fee to redeem a U.S. savings bond. If issued in a foreign country, the death certificate must be the original or a certified copy.

[S2] PR1949 — Before you begin

Published December 17, 2025

Request method: Customer is present | Row continuation: the customer:The maximum amount that can be redeemed is $1,000. They must be present for the entire redemption transaction. Notes: The $1,000 allowable redemption amount does not apply to customer eligible for The Private Bank Experience regardless of how long the account has been opened. If a customer requests to redeem savings bonds at an employee's desk or as part of a banker process, escort the customer to the teller line or designated ADA desk to complete the transaction. If the customer does not want to remain present, offer to redeem as many bonds as possible while they are present.

[S3] PR1949 — Before you begin

Published December 17, 2025

Request method: Customer is present | Row continuation: the customer does not want to remain present, offer to redeem as many bonds as possible while they are present. Return any unredeemed bonds to them and ask them to return when they can remain present for the entire redemption transaction. This procedure is complete.

N03: Can a noncustomer in Arizona get a non-Cayman Bank document notarized?

Status: evidence_only | Model: Qwen/Qwen3-4B-GGUF:Q4_K_M | Elapsed: 9.979 seconds

I could not validate the generated answer. Review these retrieved excerpts for the applicable conditions:

> Notaries must adhere to the following requirements when providing notary services:Cayman Bank Customers: Notarize both Cayman Bank documents and non-Cayman Bank documents. Note: A Cayman Bank customer is an individual who has transaction authority on any Cayman Bank account relationship. Non-customers: Notarize only Cayman Bank documents unless the notary’s state laws provide an exception. Exceptions: Notaries in Arizona, Iowa, New York, South Dakota, and Utah must notarize both Cayman Bank documents and non-Cayman Bank documents regardless of their customer status. [S1]

> York, South Dakota, and Utah must notarize both Cayman Bank documents and non-Cayman Bank documents regardless of their customer status. If a customer requests a notarization on a non-Cayman Bank document that also lists other present individuals (non-customers) requiring a notarization on the same document, notaries may notarize all individuals’ signatures regardless of their customer status. Notarize documents only at a Cayman Bank branch during business hours. Do not go offsite to complete notarizations during business work hours to conduct bank business transactions. Notarize only physical documents presented in person by the requester. Do not notarize documents sent by email, fax, mail, or text, even if the requester is present. [S2]

[S1] PR1000 — Understand the rules

Published January 29, 2026

Notaries must adhere to the following requirements when providing notary services:Cayman Bank Customers: Notarize both Cayman Bank documents and non-Cayman Bank documents. Note: A Cayman Bank customer is an individual who has transaction authority on any Cayman Bank account relationship. Non-customers: Notarize only Cayman Bank documents unless the notary's state laws provide an exception. Exceptions: Notaries in Arizona, Iowa, New York, South Dakota, and Utah must notarize both Cayman Bank documents and non-Cayman Bank documents regardless of their customer status.

[S2] PR1000 — Understand the rules

Published January 29, 2026

York, South Dakota, and Utah must notarize both Cayman Bank documents and non-Cayman Bank documents regardless of their customer status. If a customer requests a notarization on a non-Cayman Bank document that also lists other present individuals (non-customers) requiring a notarization on the same document, notaries may notarize all individuals' signatures regardless of their customer status. Notarize documents only at a Cayman Bank branch during business hours. Do not go offsite to complete notarizations during business work hours to conduct bank business transactions. Notarize only physical documents presented in person by the requester. Do not notarize documents sent by email, fax, mail, or text, even if the requester is present.

G01: What is the weather in London tomorrow?

Status: unsupported | Model: generation not used | Elapsed: 0.451 seconds

I could not find sufficient support in the 11 supplied procedures. Please clarify the situation or consult the current procedure and your supervisor.

G04: Can they do that?

Status: clarify | Model: generation not used | Elapsed: not applicable seconds

Which procedure or situation are you asking about? For example, notary services, identification, or coin-counting machines.

G06: What interest rate does Cayman Bank pay on savings accounts today?

Status: unsupported | Model: Qwen/Qwen3-4B-GGUF:Q4_K_M | Elapsed: 9.069 seconds

The retrieved passages do not provide the information needed to answer this question. Please consult the current approved source or your supervisor.

[S1] PR1779 — Estate (nonindividual personal representative) and receivership (individual receiver) > Discuss products and services

Published December 10, 2025

numerical value of the Annual Percentage Yield (APY) and use the correct full term (Annual Percentage Yield) or acronym (APY). During this discussion, the standard, relationship, or special interest rate may be stated in addition to the Annual Percentage Yield (APY). Example: You will receive an Annual Percentage Yield (APY) of 0.25% (example only and not actual Yield). Provide the following funds options to the customer, if applicable, and ask how they will fund the account today with the minimum required amount: Deposit at a teller line Cayman Bank ATM Cayman Bank Mobile® deposit, available in the Cayman Bank Mobile® app

[S2] PR1949 — Understand the rules

Published December 17, 2025

Confirm the presenter is a consumer customer with an open and active Cayman Bank checking, savings, or time account (CD), for 12 months or longer. Note: If the account has been opened less than 12 months, you may redeem bonds up to $1,000 per day (aggregate redemption value). If the total cash redemption value is more than $1,000, the customer has the following bond redemption options: Redeem the bonds up to the allowable $1,000 total value and take back the remaining bonds. Redeem all bonds at full value using the Treasury Direct website.

[S3] PR1949 — Understand the rules

Published December 17, 2025

Exception – Customer eligible for The Private Bank Experience: The $1,000 allowable redemption amount does not apply to customers who are eligible for The Private Bank Experience regardless of how long the account has been opened. Do not redeem bonds payable to a business or trust. The U.S. Department of the Treasury prohibits a bank from charging a fee to redeem a U.S. savings bond. If issued in a foreign country, the death certificate must be the original or a certified copy.